(G) APPLICATION AT THE CONSULATE GENERAL OF INDIA IN PERSON

- 1 Please submit passport and application forms between 0930 - 1230 hrs on working days. Only a maximum of 200 tokens are issued daily for receipt of applications on "first come first served" basis.
- 2 Applicants of Asian origin might be required to produce their previous passports.
- 3 Visa fee can be paid either in cash or by postal order payable to The Consulate General of India, Birmingham (cheques or debit/credit cards are not accepted).
- 4 Visas are normally issued on the same day. However, in the following cases processing of visa applications often takes longer: (a) British nationals holding dual nationality or of other origin, (b) applicants not residing in the UK, (c) where clearance from India is mandatory and (d) visitors to restricted areas. Visa section will contact the applicants about the time of delivery of such passports, as soon as a decision is arrived at. Applicants are advised not to unnecessarily keep making enquiries with/reminding the Consulate.
- 5 Visas should be checked before leaving the counter to ensure that all entries in the visa are in order.
- 6 Children holding a separate passport should obtain visa by following the above procedure.
- 7 Applicants seeking Business Visa are required to enclose invitations from British/Indian business concerns.

(H) APPLICATION BY POST

- 1 The processing of application forms will take a minimum of 20 working days and in some cases longer. The posting of the application should be properly timed to ensure that the visa would cover the duration of stay in India, allowing time for processing. The validity of a visa runs from the date of its issue. Please call to obtain the latest visa fees and estimate of processing time before posting your application form/passport/fee etc., to avoid possible delay or rejection of the application due to submission of incorrect fee/documents.
- 2 Please send valid passport, correct visa fee, two passport size photos, a stamped SAE (recorded/registered) along with duly filled application form and additional forms/supporting documents where applicable. Send applications by recorded/registered/special delivery post only.
- 3 Please enclose visa fee by crossed postal order (no cheques please) payable to The Consulate General of India, Birmingham. Under no circumstances should cash be sent by post.
- 4 Please print your correct address with full postal code to which the passport has to be sent in the specified column in the application form. A stamped self-addressed special delivery envelope should be sent along with the application form.
- 5 The visa application form with all the requirements should be addressed to the Visa Department of this Consulate to avoid undue delay in receiving your application by the Visa Department.
- 6 While every effort is taken for prompt processing, the Consulate General of India will not be responsible for any delay/loss of passport or other documents.
